HORSE HILL SCHOOL 1984-85

Congratulations to our students and staff members who have contributed countless hours of energy, enthusiasm and diligent work in the production of the 1984-85 Horse Hill School Yearbook. A tremendous and successful undertaking! The Yearbook not only reminds us of classroom associations but also highlights activities that have made this year at Horse Hill School memorable for students and staff alike.

May I take this opportunity to thank students and staff for making 1984-85 a rewarding one for your new principal.

School Is

- fun
- romance
- having a good teacher
- where Dinosaurs lived
- where you get the hiccups
- full of activities
- where the Gremlins grow
- making friends
- an adventure
- boring
- where Mrs. McNeilly sneezes because she is allergic to the class
- having a "rocking chair"
- where the teacher yells at you
- learning things
- a place where kids are never quiet
- a place where we spill things and make a mess
- where we fall off our chairs
- where we learn many things
- having a doll and truck show
- going to the water slides
- getting bad reportcards

The Monster

I had a monster, his name was Joe
And everybody at the movie theater liked his show.
Whenever he made a noise
He got lots of toys.
One day he went to the pond
And fell in and yawned.
He died
And I cried.

Connie T.

The Last Day of School

The last day of school makes me sad
And sometimes it makes me mad.
Summer's still fun
Dancing in the sun.
And then back to school again.

Lynnette S.

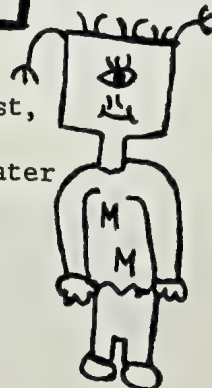

The Monster

The monster is a frightful beast,
Always here to say the least.
When he comes I'd say you'd run
They're always there when you want to have fun.
So when you try to sleep at night
That is when you have a fright.
Leann G.

The Triceratops

The triceratops is a three-horned beast,
And rather large to say the least.
The triceratops is a peaceful plant-eater
And it is much longer than a metre.
He likes to fight,
Hitting horns left and right.
He is quite big,
And eats like a pig.

Mr. N. Letts

There once was a lad from Horse Hill
Who had a girlfriend named Jill,
They went after school,
To swim in the pool,
What a thrill for the girl named Jill.

5L Class

There once was a girl named Heidi
Her room was very tidy.
When Amy came over,
They sat in the clover,
So that Heidi could keep her room tidy,
Stacy Laursen

There once was a girl from the city
Who had a little brown kitty,
She took it for walks,
For three thousand blocks,
Boy, that poor little kitty!

Chantelle Roberts

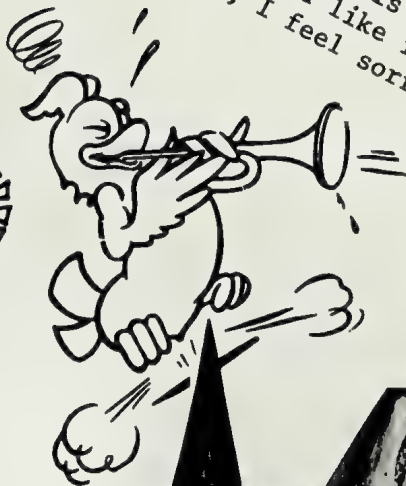

There was a man named Harry,
He had a buddy named Larry,
They went outside
To try to decide
Who was Harry or Larry.

Dianne Reimer

There was a boy named Amy
Who had a girlfriend named Jamie.
This poem is mixed
I would like it fixed,
Oh, I feel sorry for Amy and Jamie.

Travis Gogol

Oh! I think I just swallowed my frog!

There once was a young dog named Rover,
Who did flips over and over,
After the flips
He ate chocolate dips
And the poor dog did flips over and over.

I'm thrown in the closet, and worn

No one knows
He's up in the bedroom

The boy cares for him,

A Muddy Day

You walk through the mud
with a thud, thud, thud.
You hear the sound swish, swish
And it tickles your feet
It is soft and grey.
I like playing in the mud.

The sky is blue and full of clouds
Fluffy and white, against their background
It covers the world without even touching

It is so beautiful, and then, when you get
